

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Don Kranz and Leslie Redemske exchanged their wedding vows at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Watertown, South Dakota, on May 17, 1986, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newlyweds of 25 years remain devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and wonder, and have grown to love one another even more; and,

Whereas, Don and Leslie have given life and love to two fantastic children, Brittany and Brennan, and adore three crazy canines, Sammy, Maxine and Scout; and,

Whereas, Their home has been a haven of hospitality and good times for family, friends, neighbors, stranded motorists, and wandering out-of-town relatives; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring, sharing, and hard work, Don and Leslie have helped make South Dakota a great place to live, work, and raise a family; and,

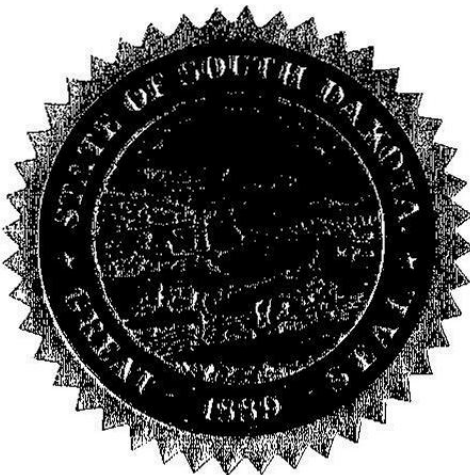

Whereas, Don and Leslie will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary with family and friends on May 21, 2011; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this special occasion in the lives of these two people who have lived exemplary lives for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 21, 2011, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
